

NEW YORK POST

Good times in San Diego

Whatever the weather, Southern California's second city is heating up

By DAVID LANDSEL

4) THE SPAS RULE

Meanwhile, North County's resort-spa scene is better than ever, with even the classic Rancho Bernardo Inn weighing in with a beautifully rethought indoor/outdoor facility that's far more luxurious than you'd expect given the resort's middling reputation (newly renovated rooms are helping that, however).