Fresh ingredients make for more than just a fine meal – they also nourish your body, skin and soul.

That’s why we choose the freshest and most nourishing ingredients to use in our spa treatments. In fact, our spa menu might just make you a bit hungry as you read through...and with ingredients like orange, ginger, blueberry and honey, we understand why. We use these carefully selected organic and natural ingredients to cleanse your body, leave your skin healthy and glowing, and make your mouth water. We hope you’ll join us soon (and then again and again) to enjoy the flavors, scents and sounds of the season at The Spa.

“MADE FRESH DAILY”

Given our focus on seasonal ingredients, our “made fresh daily” limited-edition packages highlight what’s best right now. Each handcrafted package includes a complementary beverage, special “spa at home” body treatment recipe from your spa therapist and our “food at home” recipe by our culinary expert, to continue the spa experience after you’ve left us.
